

Quaid-e-Azam 14-Points

- 1- The government should be federal.
- 2- All provinces will have equal autonomy.
- 3- Minorities must have effective representation in the legislature and other elected groups in every province.
- 4- At least  $\frac{1}{3}$  of the central legislature will be muslim.
- 5- Communities can choose whether to have a separate or joint electorate.
- 6- No territorial changes can be made which effect the muslim majority in Punjab, Bengal and the North West Frontier Province (N.W.F.P).
- 7- Full religious Liberty belief, observance, education etc.
- 8- If  $\frac{3}{4}$  of a community's representatives in a legislature think a bill would hurt their interests, the bill cannot be passed.

~~Quintore~~

9. Sindh should be separated from the Bombay presidency.
- 10- Implement reforms in NWFP and Balochistan.
- 11- Muslims should get an adequate share of government services.
- 12- Muslim culture (education, language, religion, charities, etc) should be protected and get a fair share of government money.
- 13- Both central and Provincial cabinets must have at least  $\frac{1}{3}$  Muslim ministers.
- 14- Changes to the ~~Constitution~~ Consitution must be approved by states.